Dr. Ron Barone

This class will cover the concepts and application of human energy process and application in radionics and homeopathic preparation and broadcasting. With insults for our environment, aging and organism insults the information energy protocols become distorted and imbalanced. Re-directing information flow to the original genetic and biofield patterns is a key to healthy normal processes. This is cutting edge radionics interpretation of Decoding the Human Body filed by Peter Fraser and Harry Massey. The book can be purchased from Amazon for less than $20. You need to have this book, if you choose to do this work.

An easy way to incorporate effective nutrition into dealing with wellness and disease. Learn how to apply nutrition to your radionics results for your individual clients.

Advanced Cold-Scanning: Utilizing Commands For Increased Effectiveness by Daniel Taylor

Among the most dramatic and well-documented turnarounds I have seen were in cases involving congenital blindness and microencephaly, definite medical "impossibilities." The practitioner in both cases relied heavily upon a technique utilizing a series of customized commands, radionically encoded and delivered to the subject. In this session we will explore this powerful technique, using some examples from the cases mentioned, as well as some from my own practice. We will also explore other factors than "cause" in disease, and places to look when the results you desire are not manifesting. Some underutilized known-rates will be mentioned as well. Familiarity with cold-scanning will definitely be assumed. The examples covered will be based in human health, although the technique can certainly be applied to all other areas.

Questions and Answers Roundtable Discussion 4-5pm

All speakers will be available to answer your questions about the topics they have presented.

EVENING PRESENTATION - 7 - 10PM

Robin Hermanson will share how you can move beyond strict mineral analyses Reams Biological theory to soil and crop general vitality of between 2000 to 4000 where biological transmutation kicks in, with reams mineral balance, cover crops and soil biology restoration and enhancement. Why GMOs are bad science for crop, soil, animal and human health will be discussed and cussed and solutions offered. Why weather modifications using cloud seeding, cemtrails and harp antenna is bad science will be discussed and cussed. Solution will be offered. High mineral dense, high vitality crops are like good medicine to animals and people.

Crops and Bugs Class by Marty Lucas

There is no area where Radionics produces faster, verifiable and more reliable results than in suppressing pests in crops. The Crops and Bugs Class will show you how to add a 'cloak of invisibility' over your crop so that most pests cannot find even it. By understanding why infestations occur, you'll be able to prevent them before they are an issue. By understanding the CAUSE of infestations, prevention becomes easier. With the CAUSE taken care of the particular type of pest infestation becomes less important.

Suppressing insect infestations in crops begins well before planting and doesn't end at harvest.

However, if prevention fails, then you need to understand how to suppress the pests, drive them from the field and disrupt their reproductive cycles. This can be done without poisons, without disrupting beneficial soil and insect life, and while supporting the health of the crop.

We'll discuss particular insect suppression techniques and issues; both radionic and homeopathic. But more importantly we explore the issues of stress in the plant. By eliminating plant stress, 90% of insect issues disappear, AND with lower stress we enjoy higher yields!
